

SERBIAN ECONOMY

CONTENT

FIRST CHAPTER

Knowledge base on the capital and the economy in Serbia	1
1. Qualitative sources of information on the status and future of the Serbian economy	2
2. Conflicting flows of capital and the economy in Serbia	7
3. To the economy of our reality in contemporary processes of value	8

SECOND CHAPTER

Economic system in base of the modern scientific knowledge of economy and capital
-Theoretical and categorical frames	11
1. The inevitable tendency of capital and Serbian economy	12
2. Economic system – a synthesis of the scientific basis of modern economy	14
2.1 Economic system – conceptual characteristics	15
2.2 Relevant definition	18
2.3 Economic system – modernity knowledge	21
3. Economy, the basis of economic order and economic system	22
3.1 Economy, the main areas – material activity and people’s economic order	25
3.2 Economic order and economic forms	29
3.3. Economic order – legality of changes and and economics of capital	31
4. Economic laws – the foundation of the essence of economic capital	33
5. Economy and the processes of capital – various definitions of economic science	37
6. Capital in transition economies	40

THIRD CHAPTER

The scientific method of knowledge about the economy of capital and its intentions	45
1. Theoretical foundation	45
2. Methodological framework of economic science and the science of economic system	46
2.1 Possible and realistic goals of scientific research enterprise	49
2.2 Diversity of scientific approaches and appropriate process of knowledge and economic forms	51

3. Theoretical abstraction and economic reality	54
3.1 Theoretical abstraction and research of existing economic forms	56
3.2 Application of appropriate methods of analysis of economic phenomena, processes and relationships, with “critical and empirical review of reality”	57
3.3 Scientific explanation of the collapse of practical forms of economic capital processes, causes and consequences, and theoretical abstraction	58
3.4 Explanation of the “post-socialist” characteristics of economic order and economic phenomena using sustainable methods	59
 FOURTH CHAPTER
Global economic categories	61
1. Marx’s synthesis of knowledge about the global economic categories	62
2. Gross domestic product – the modern practice of defining and calculating forms	63
3. National income and other indicators	65
4. Real terms and the necessary inquiries in this regard	67
 FIFTH CHAPTER
Capital and modern economic trends	69
1. Capital – the spontaneous creation of forms of economic development	69
2. The most important objective “circumstances” of capital – modernity and historical basis	71
3. Capital in contemporary value relationships and democratic processes	72
4. Modern economic processes on the basis of capital	76
5. Serbia in contemporary flows of capital	82
5.1 New constitutional construction of economic order and normative possibilities of functioning of modern forms and processes of capital	86
 SIXTH CHAPTER
Trends in contemporary epoch and the processes of capital	89
1. Universal changes of modern civilization	90
1.1 Contemporary changes – based on the overall development of civilization	92
1.2 Epochal changes – the basis of transformation and development	95
1.2.1 Development of knowledge and science	97
1.2.2 Science and knowledge within development	98
1.2.3 Production application of the results of science and scientific research	103
1.2.4 Wide impact of automation	108
1.2.5 Character of automation and large machinery and computerization	109
2. Improvement of work processes	115
3. Contemporary changes in ownership structure	118

SEVENTH CHAPTER

Multinational companies Worldwide capital flows	125
1. Path to modernity	125
2. Multinational companies – the economic, commercial and financial power (the line transition economies and globalization)	127
2.1 Attempts at definition	128
2.2 Foundation and development	130
2.3 Trends of economic and profit power toward modernity	130
3. Contemporary forms of international capital movements	136
3.1 Multinational companies as a form of international capital movements	137
4. Financial internationalization and multinational companies	150

EIGHTH CHAPTER

Processes of globalization of world economy and the real place of Serbia	155
1. Understanding of global processes of a unified humanity	156
1.1 Whether they embody the processes of globalization as the equity
Boundless prosperity	157
2. Objective global flows – economic processes and political masters	159
3. Impact of globalization of world economy, expansion of activities of the European Union and World Trade Organization on the processes of development of “post-socialist” and other developing countries	163
4. Globalization on the way of misunderstanding and inadequate application	171
5. Geostrategic meanderings	174
6. European Union – experience of joining the new “post-socialist” countries in transition	175
6.1 Foundation – a brief remainder	176
6.2 New members and new image of the European Union	176
7. Serbia – to further reform and the contemporary transformations of world market, trends in modern epoch and the processes of capital	179

NINTH CHAPTER

State in the function of capital, self-development of capital and contemporary market	183
---	-----

1. Capacity and dilemmas in building of state economic functions	184
2. Modern division of state economic function	188
3. Public finances and public spending – economic efficiency, power and potency of stability and development	190
3.1 What are the public finances	191
3.1.1 Distribution of public goods	191
3.1.2 Defining public finance	192
4. Public revenues – part of a unified body of public finances	196
5. Public finances – the expansion of state economic functions	200
5.1 Public spending – public choice and public host	204
6. The necessity of changing economic picture of the world and the role of public spending	206
7. Building a modern state in the progressive function of capital intentions	210

TENTH CHAPTER

NEOMONETARISM AND NEOLIBERALISM

Economic thought and practice in Serbia	215
1. Foundations of changing modern civilization and neomonetarism	216
1.1 What can be scientific researched and explained	216
1.2 Alternative to modern science of economics and neoliberalism	220
1.3 Elements of Keynes's general theory and actuality	223
1.4 Chicago monetarism theory and actuality	225
2. Theoretical divergence of money and neoliberalism	230
3. Neoliberalism as the basis of modern economic organization and flows	234
4. Unsuccessful attempt of the new constitution of the neoliberal economy in Serbia	238
4.1 Is it active neoliberal concept of National bank of Serbia	239
4.2 Other neoliberal processes and tendencies – an indication of inadequate changes in Serbia	243
5. Science of monetary system in general economic understanding in Serbia	256

ELEVENTH CHAPTER

Economic and social processes in Serbia and the gap between the normative and the real	259
1. Open process of normative regulations of Serbian economy	259
2. Relations between normative and real as the fate of economic processes	261
3. Economy and the constructions of norms, legal institutions and solutions	265
3.1 Normative guidance from the practice “of socialism”	265
3.2 Our normative transition practice	267
3.3 Economic reforms and normative canons	269
3.4 The gap between normative and real – our most recent experience	270
3.5 Kosovo and Metohija – the normative and the real	271

TWELFTH CHAPTER

New era of progressive intentions and capital

Realistic chance of Serbia	274
1. Economics in the forms of modern organization of productions of goods and market institutions	276
2. Prices, accumulation and development	278
2.1 Regularity of prices – real basis of modern economy and the accumulation	281
2.2 Economists and the evolution of content of the price	283
2.3 Price – the complex economic relationship and objective indicator of core inflation generator	284
2.3.1 What is inflation	285
3. Inflation as a failure of the synthetic delay of changes, systemic and reform phenomenon in Serbia	290
4. Economic content of prices – an objective indicator and measure of successfulness of reforms	295
5. The practice of inflationary business and measures of economic policy	298
6. The collapse of policy of inflationary business – the inevitability of systemic, institutional, structural and development transformation	301

7. World economy globalization and modernity inflation	303
THIRTEENTH CHAPTER
Contemporary processes of accumulation and investment principles	307
1. Investments and accumulation as contemporary capital flow	308
2. Intense accumulation of society – the future of modern forms of capital and direct antiinflational tendency	309
3. Importance of accumulation for development of production and business subjects	314
4. Economic growth as a measure of success of the economy, the accumulation and investment reality	318
5. Accumulation and modern capital market	319
6. Intense accumulation as an affirmation of investments principles of capital	323
7. Capital markets in function of forming optimal investments and development	325
8. Accumulation and investments as Serbian national development chance	330
8.1 Necessity of developing intense accumulation of capital in Serbia	331
9. New model of accumulation and investments in Serbia	335
FOURTEENTH CHAPTER
Failure of the reforms and meanderings of privatizations in Serbia	341
1. Further flows of privatization	341
2. Lack of economic and social reforms and lost chances of privatization	343
3. Where goes Serbian privatization	346
3.1 Designed bureaucratic practice of privatization	347
3.2 Privatization and Serbian “tycoons”	349
3.3 Social conflicts and inconsistencies of the ruling policy	350
3.4 Radically new approach to further privatization in the given realities	353
4. Directions for necessary action	356
4.1 The new way to determine the value of capital	358
5. Privatization of public enterprises	360
6. Investment funds and privatization in Serbia	362

6.1 Brief history and current information	362
6.2 Investment funds in the tradition of “post-socialist” countries	364
6.3 Our – Serbian way	365
6.4 Ability of stimulation of investments in Serbia and perspectives of investment funds	367
7. Do not forget the “White book” directives	369
FIFTEENTH CHAPTER
Discussion of the informal economy to the failure of market economy	371
1. Character of contemporary informal economy	372
1.1 Informal economy – a manifestation of modern picture of the world	373
1.2 Informal economy – contemporary follower of all forms of capital	375
1.3 How can we recognize the informal economy	376
2. Prevalence of the informal economy in the modern	380
3. Our country and the existence of the informal economy	384
3.1 Our privatization in the informal economy impulses	390
4. Measures to combat the informal economy in Serbia	393
SIXTEENTH CHAPTER
Economy, capital, human capital in Serbia	399
1. Human capital – the modernity of scientific thought and practice	400
1.1 Theoretical and practical foundation of the labor market in the function of human capital	403
1.2 Modern economic thought – labor and labor market	410
2. Labor market, economic growth and development	413
3. International capital flows and labor market	415
4. Economic processes, the economic logic of capital and labor market reform	417
5. Serbia’s unemployment crisis and ways to overcome	419
5.1 Statistically, but not actual achievements since 2000	422
5.2 Economic policy, poverty and unemployment	426

6. Unemployment and the need for the labor market reforms in Serbia	431
6.1 Current trends in the labor market in Serbia – the directions of reforms	432
6.2 Trends in unemployment and the necessity of design labor market	433
6.3 Anarchy of unemployment in Serbia	436
6.3.1 The role of government in increasing unemployment	444
6.4 International orientation	445
6.5 How to overcome the crisis of unemployment	446
 SEVENTEENTH CHAPTER
Accelerated economic development – the only chance for Serbia	451
1. Why we quickly fall behind in economic development	451
2. The role and importance of industry in economic development in Serbia	453
2.1 New development opportunity and a new strategy	457
3. Development of agriculture the most important basis for progress in Serbia	460
3.1 Problems of agricultural production	461
4. Importance of agricultural production for economic development of Serbia	464
5. Agriculture and changes in the way of joining the European Union and world market trends	466
 EIGHTEENTH CHAPTER
Entrepreneurial managerial economics – the condition and the future of Serbian Economy	469
1. Management in the function of capital	470
2. Specific management as science, theory, knowledge, skills and practice	471
2.1 What is management	474
2.2 Management in strategic planning	476
2.3 Management and strategic planning of development	478
3. Management in economic reforms	479
3.1 Bureaucratic philosophy and managers opportunism by transitional Changes	481

4. Managers of changes and changing of managers	482
NINETEENTH CHAPTER
Economic policy
Place in contemporary economics and practice in Serbia	487
1. Economic policy as a doctrine and contemporary action of social forces	488
2. Defining economic policy. Elements of the definition and economic functions	491
2.1 Defining	492
2.2 Definition elements	495
3. Modern theoretical achievements	496
3.1 Significance of the results of modern economic science	498
3.2 Economic policy, internet, personal and expert computers	500
4. Measuring results and effects of implementation of economic policy	502
5. Economic policy. Scopes	506
6. Interaction between the substance of economy and economic policy
Qualitative causality	509
6.1 Policy and economic policy	509
6.2 Economic policy and economic system	514
6.3 Economic policy and economic order	515
6.4 Economic policy and development policy	517
6.5 Economic policy and economic development	518
6.6 Modern tendencies in the development of microeconomics, macroeconomics and mathematical-empirical economics their impact on modernity of economic policy	520
TWENTIETH CHAPTER
Essays on problems arising from lack of development economic policy and progress in Serbia	523
1. Inadequate modern facilities	524
2. Our economic policy – from the ambitions of all-power giants to liliputian Dimensions	526

3. Long –term political overestimation of the results of economy policy	529
4. Is it progressive, or regressive results	531
5. Political cover-up of economic failure becomes the destiny of government power	532
6. Political actors in economic policy	535
7. Economic policy as a means for struggle for political dominance	536
8. Directions of development of political actions in area of economic policy	539
9. Cunning tactics to ignore the inevitability of change	541
10. Establishment of our foreign trade policy on ignorance of world economic and political processes	542
11. Economic policy and “transition depression”	547
12. Inevitable path to economy policy of social tensions	549
TWENTY – FIRST CHAPTER
Capital economy and democratic processes. Importance of local democracy	553
1. Contemporaneity of economic changes and development of democratic processes	554
2. Prevailing capital and democratization processes	558
3. Without economic there is no either political democracy	562
4. Serbia and modern trends of local democracy in function of economic and social progress	566
4.1 Brief overview of reality – distortions and contradictions	567
5. There is no local government (democracy) without economic and financial independence	570
6. Serbia – (not)unity of local democracy and macro democracy	573
TWENTY – SECOND CHAPTER
Economy of capital in trade of goods. Importance of trade	577
1. Trade – indispensable phase of the total movement of capital	578
2. Role, importance and understanding of trade in the function of capital	579
3. Trade and economy of trade	582
4. Trade and trading profit	584

5. Trade – an equal sphere of reproduction of capital	585
6. Trade and the economy of transition	586
7. Wholesale and retail trade	587
7.1 Domestic trade	587
7.2 Foreign trade	588
8. Forms of expansion and trade economy	589
8.1 Fairs	589
8.2 Commodity exchanges	590
8.3 Forms of tourism supply and demand	590
8.4 Internet trading and market	591
9. Development of processes of international trade	592
 TWENTY – THIRD CHAPTER
Economy of capital and cooperation of the Balkan countries	595
1. Necessity of economic and regional cooperation	595
2. Significant and undeniable trade opportunities	599
3. Conditioned of the regional economic cooperation by the specific of the international trade and economic flows	600
4. Importance of the foreign trade policy strategy, principles and practice and limiting the arms race	601
5. Foreign trade policy, the role of blockades and sanctions by the United States and international organizations by many countries	604
6. Serbia, Balkan originality and trade cooperation	606
7. Possibility and necessity of improving cooperation	609
8. CEFTA 2006 – untapped opportunities or	614
 TWENTY – FOURTH CHAPTER
The necessity and specificity relationship between Serbian and modern trends of the economy	619
1. Era of the destruction of economic ties with the absence of creating a

qualitatively new	620
2. Economic necessity of international exchange and integration of our country in the world market	623
3. Quantitative indicators of international trade	630
4. Foreign trade deficit – synthetic indicator of the absence of economic reforms on the basis of capital	634
5. Nonmerchandise traffic	640
6. Dependence of the economy capital debt to foreign countries, international financial institutions and on all other grounds	641
6.1 The impact of foreign loans on the development of Serbia	643
6.2 Our current experience	645
TWENTY – FIFTH CHAPTER
Serbian and capital in the form of foreign direct investment	655
1. Character and importance of foreign direct investment	656
2. Role of foreign direct investment in the character of economic and political reforms in Serbia	657
3. Quantitative indicators	660
4. Necessary changes	667